BLILEY'S ILLNESS MAY DELAY VOTE ON ANNEXATION

Lee Ward Alderman Says He Will Do His Best to Come.

HIS HELP NEEDED TO CARRY MEASURE

Annexation Leaders Will Permit Ordinance to Lay Over for Later Meeting Unless Eight Sure Votes Are in Sight. "Spotless Town" Law Comes Up.

If Alderman Bliley, of Lee Ward, finds it possible to attend to-night's meeting, Alderman Powers will move the reconsideration of the vote by which the Board on Thursday night refused to concur in the Common Council's action on the annexation ordinance, and the measure will be put to a vote and passed. If he is forced to remain at home, the reconsideration will not be asked, and the ordinance will go to a vote at some future meeting to be held some time before De-

Annexation leaders in informal conference at the City Hall last night thus summarized the situation. There was a clear determination not to take any risks, and the ordinance risks, and taken into account when dealing with her case.

"If she had done the same as men, she would have deserted her children and gone away with the new lover, and gone away with the new lover, and gone away with the new lover.

Against the ordinance are counted Aldermen Adams, Grimes, Melton, Nelsen and Paul—the quintet that held up concurrence at Thursday night's meeting. Annexation leaders hald conferences yesterday with several members of the opposition, seeking to enlist their support, but announcements of a probable change in the line-up were not forthcoming.

Powers Confident. "I have hopes that Mr. Billey will be well enough to attend the meeting," said Chairman Powers, of the Annexation Committee, last night. "If he comes, we will pass the ordinance without trouble. If he finds it impossible to come it will mean only a short sible to come, it will mean only a short delay. The fact is that nine of the Board's fourteen members will vote for the measure as soon as they get a chance. There is no danger of its failing. Our only concern now is to avoid unnecessary delay, since even if the ordinance is passed to-morrow night, it will be months before it is returned with the approval of the

we get a full meeting to-mor-

Under the Council rules, the next vote on the ordinance will be final. Only one reconsideration is allowed. If the measure, the next time it is placed on its passage, should fail to muster the eight necessary votes, it is rejected for good. The matter could be then reopened only by the intro-ordinance, which has had a long and weary passage through the commit-tees and comes with the unanimous approval of the Common Council. It will probably be concurred in unanimously. When passed by the Board and signed by the Mayor, the new law will go into effect on February 1, 1914.

In addition to the annexation and clean-up measures, the Board's docket contains a large number of resolu-tions from the Finance Committee several up for concurrence. In most tions which will require a two-thirds

He Sails Through Panama Canal and Pronounces It Finished.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

New York, November 10.—Secretary of War Garrison, with Mrs. Garrison and party, arrived to-day from Panama on the steamer Colon. During his visit Mr. Garrison went from the Atlantic to within two miles of the Pacific entrance of the canal on one of the working boats in the "big ditch," known as a Clapet.

"The canal is finished," he said. "We went through the Gatun Locks, the

JUSTICE NOT DONE

Dr. E. W. Gee, who is attending Mr. Billey, told The Times-Dispatch last night that his patient has a badly bruised knee, and that if his condition was no better to-day than it was yesterday he will advise against attempting the trip. He had hopes, however, he said, that Mr. Eliley will be sufficiently improved to-day to be able to attend the meeting without risk.

Eight With Billey.

With Alderman Billey in his seat, the annexation ordinance will be able to poll eight votes—just enough to carry it through.
